About the Head Trainer and Owner: Sara Gumbiner

Sara Gumbiner is a CHA & BHS certified instructor that specializes in balanced seat riding, emphasizing the importance of understanding how horses think and learn through all styles of riding. She has worked with many top professionals throughout the industry and has over fifteen years of Hunt Seat, Western, Eventing & Dressage competition. This experience enables Sara to provide superior training, proven to be successful for all styles of riding.

Mission Statement

Bound to Be Stables emphasizes the importance of understanding how horses think and learn through all styles of riding. We strive to instill empathy and respect for all equines in students while nurturing a passion for learning for themselves and others. Trainers at Bound To Be Stables connect with each student allowing them to progress at their own pace while challenging enough to help them be accomplished riders. We create a competitive, yet encouraging environment where all disciplines are welcome, from Western trail riders to Olympic hopefuls.
